Your data protection rights

Under data protection law parents / carers and pupils have the right to request access to information about them that we hold (a subject access request).

To make a request for your personal information or to be given access to your child's educational record, please contact the school office or our data protection officer (see contact details at the start of this privacy notice). Where a child does not have the maturity to make their own requests for personal data, parents may do so on their behalf in a primary school setting.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means

Under GDPR you are not required to pay any charge for exercising your rights. If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you.

Parents of pupils who attend a maintained school have a separate statutory right to access their child's educational record. Upon receipt of a written request for a pupil's educational record, the school will respond to it within 15 school days. This is an independent legal right of parents which falls outside of the GDPR.

How you can help us

As the school has limited staff resources outside of term time, we encourage parents to submit requests for information during term time and to avoid sending a request during periods when the school is closed, or is about to close for the holidays, where possible. This will assist us in responding to your request as promptly as possible.

For further information about how we handle subject access requests, please see our Data Protection Policy.

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously. If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.
